DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/13/2009 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-15, 17-19, 22-42, 44-61, 63-65, and 68-77 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The independent claims of Applicant's invention recite a system and method in which potential affiliates may sign up to become affiliates of a merchant. Once a potential affiliate fills out an application with information including sales and marketing information, the merchant takes this information, defines a profile for the affiliate, and determines a subset of defined compensation plan choices to offer the potential affiliate based on the profile. Once the potential affiliate selects a compensation plan from the subset offered, the potential affiliate becomes an affiliate. The affiliate is then compensated based on measured traffic of either new customers, returning customers, or click-throughs to the merchant website originating from the affiliate website.

4. Bezos (U.S. Patent No. 6,029,141) teaches an affiliate sign-up process in which a potential affiliate signs up with an affiliate program by sending in sales and marketing information. An email is then sent to the affiliate listing products for the affiliate to advertise. The affiliate may further look through a catalog of products to determine a product to advertise. Bezos does not teach providing a subset of compensation plans tailored to an affiliate profile, those compensation plans determining compensation based on measured traffic of either new customers, returning customers, or click-throughs to the merchant website originating from the affiliate website.

5. Lipin (U.S. Pub No. 2004/0225558) teaches an affiliate portal system in which a potential affiliate is provided with multiple compensation plans, each from a different merchant site. Lipin does not teach providing a subset of compensation plans tailored to an affiliate profile, those compensation plans determining compensation based on measured traffic of either new customers, returning customers, or click-throughs to the merchant website originating from the affiliate website.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
